By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's statement that his administration sees no way to balance the budget for the next fiscal year appeared likely today to delay indefinitely any fresh tax cuts.

Eisenhower told a White House news conference yesterday it will be impossible to bring expenditures completely in line with revenue. Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) said Congress may have to approve new appropriations without any final spending estimates for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

To Sen. George (D-Ga.) an old hand at fiscal matters this spelled delay and possibly no tax reductions at all beyond the already scheduled death of the excess profits levy on July 1 and a 10 per cent decline in individual income taxes set for next Jan. 1.

Commenting on the president's statement, George said: "I don't see how it leaves any leeway for a tax reduction."

Some House leaders, however, clung to a hope they will pass a tax cut this year, although they agreed with the President that tax reductions should not be considered until a balanced budget is in sight.

Republican leader Halleck (Ind.) said in an interview, "I still

Asks Leniency for Fighting Capone Hoods

CHICAGO (UP) — A crime commissioner treasurer, unmasked as a prison fugitive, pleaded today that his fight against Capone hoodlums should entitle him to leniency at the hands of the law.

Authorities yesterday arrested Cornelius Pytsch, 49, known in suburban Northlake since 1949 as Frank Raboski, a diesel engineer for a construction company. They revealed he was an ex-convict wanted for parole violation in New York and rape in California.

His neighbors joined his plea for leniency, calling him "such a good neighbor" and a "man who has done a lot for the community."

Pytsch was named treasurer of the Northlake Crime Commission after the brutal baseball bat beating of anti-gambling crusader Robert Niemeyer in 1951 by gangsters believed to be in the pay of the Chicago crime syndicate.

"I feel the service I rendered in the village, the clean life I led, should help me in obtaining leniency," Pytsch said.

He even ran for police magistrate recently on a "reform" ticket but was defeated.

"Raboski" was so popular that Northlake policemen refused to participate in his arrest and Chief Fred Heck finally told Pytsch he was wanted.

22 Additional Prisoners Are on Way Home

By ROY ESSORAN
HONOLULU, (UP) — A third big hospital plane carrying 22 sick and wounded Americans home from Communist prison camps was due here late last night, but news of its arrival was buried under a blanket of Army silence.

An Army spokesman said he had received orders classifying movements of repatriates as "secret for security and compassionate" reasons. The spokesman, Maj. Douglas H. Mitchell, said he could not explain "compassionate."

The secrecy was so complete it led to speculation the latest flight might be carrying prisoners who may have succumbed to Communist indoctrination during their captivity.

The Army refused to say whether the plane arrived how many were aboard and who they are.

Forty-one sick and wounded veterans arrived late yesterday because the blackout began. It was the second freedom airlift plane to return disabled soldiers. The first, carrying 35 men, passed through Honolulu Tuesday, with little restriction on news coverage although no interviews were allowed.

Dexter, Gould to Appear in Coliseum

Friday night at the Livestock Show Coliseum Al Dexter, singer and writer of western songs, will hold a musical program which will include such stars as Bill Gould and his Circle H Cowboys. Dexter will sing his latest recordings, "Guitar Polka" and the "Hootenanny Waltz."

Music Students Give Recital at Spring Hill

Mrs. Charles F. Batson presented her piano and voice pupils in a formal recital at 7:30 p.m. April 28, in Spring Hill school.

Appearing in the recital were Sharon Anderson, Wanda Martin, Dean Allen, Tressa Huckabee, Jim Anderson, Martha Sue Martin, Brenda Martin, Sherry Ann Collins, Martha Elam, Darrie May, Jimmy Sharran, Jerry Sue Collins, Shirley Starks, Elaine Boyce, Betty Foster, Jerald McMurtury, Iris Fry, Wendall Rogers, Helen Brewer, Larry Allen, Nelda Clark, Jerry Williams, Johnette Houck and Thomas Foster.

UN Demands Release of 375 Illegally Held

PANMUNJOM, Korea, (UP) — United Nations accused the Communists today of illegally holding back at least 375 ailing Allied war prisoners and warned that refusal to free them could wreck the armistice negotiations.

It was indicated that at least 100 of the sick and wounded men may be Americans.

The Communists rejected the accusation as "a willful slander not worth refuting."

Rear Adm. John C. Daniel told the Communists at a meeting of liaison officers that the U.N. has "indisputable evidence" they are holding more than 234 non-Koreans and 141 South Koreans, all fit to travel, who should have been freed under the recent exchange of sick and wounded prisoners.

Daniel said his evidence came from personal reports by freed U.N. prisoners who listed 375 ailing men, all fit to travel, who were left behind. He said he knows the total really is higher.

Demanding that the Reds hand over the remaining men, Daniel said:

"If you fail to carry out in good faith the April 11 agreement for the repatriation of sick and injured captured personnel, the U.N. command can have no choice but to question your sincerity with respect to reaching and carrying out agreements on broader questions confronting the armistice delegations."

Unused Funds May Bring More Slashes

By RUSSELL BRINES
WASHINGTON (UP) — Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.) said today next year's foreign aid request might be cut finally at less than four billion dollars by cutting off unused funds from past years.

Taber, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said the Eisenhower administration has set a tentative total of $5,000,000,000 for foreign aid in the fiscal year starting July 1, compared with $7,600,000,000 recommended by former President Truman.

But Taber said the Eisenhower administration has promised to subtract from its $5,000,000,000 estimate of funds for foreign aid that remain unobligated when the current fiscal year ends June 30.

This additional cut, he said in an interview, "might readily be 1 1/2 to two billion dollars." If it

Tornadoes Leave 13 Dead in Georgia

WARNER ROBINS, Ga. (UP) — A shattering tornado dealt trip-hammer blows at this mid-Georgia community at twilight yesterday, killed 15 persons and caused property damage estimated in the millions.

Between 250 and 300 persons were injured by the devastating blow that churned down from warm spring skies and left a trail of misery, wreckage and death.

Eleven bodies were found amid the litter of blasted homes in this town 15 miles southeast of Macon. Two persons — a four-year-old child and the wife of an Air Force colonel — died when the storm wrecked the motor cars in which they were riding.

By PERRY W. MULLEN

tornado blasted the Warner Robins area with atomic blast fury late Thursday, killing 13 persons, injuring an estimated 250 to 300 others, and causing millions of dollars worth of property damage.

Twelve bodies were pulled from demolished houses in the town of Warner Robins, 15 miles southeast of Macon.

The 13th victim was a four-year-old child, killed in a highway accident in flight from the storm. More bodies may be buried under widespread rubble in the town itself and in wreckage littering the Robins Air Force base, which serves as supply and maintenance depot and service headquarters for the 14th Air Force.

One hundred and one persons remained in the base hospital early today. About 50 others were in Macon hospitals.

Only three members of the Air Force personnel on the base were known to have been injured and they were dismissed after treatment. Property damage to the installation was unofficially estimated at more than a million dollars.

Several large structures on the base were flattened. The swelling black funnel appeared shortly after 6 p.m. when most of the 9,000 residents of Warner Robins were preparing for dinner.

After smashing 30 two-unit apartments in a housing project near the base, the storm entered the base and whirled giddily over the area. Some structures were leveled, some unroofed, and others were left untouched.

Brick buildings in the town and on the outskirts were torn apart as if made of plywood.

Former Official Is Indicted in Dierks Bank Case

TEXARKANA (UP) — U. S. Commissioner Thelma Winham said today that a Federal Grand Jury at Ft. Smith has indicted a second former Bank of Dierks employee on 11 counts in the $200,000 shortage at the bank.

The Commissioner said Thomas P. Westbrook, a former employee, was indicted on charges of embezzling, conspiracy to embezzle, and making false entries. Mrs. Opal Stimmington, former a sista n t cashier at the bank who previously had been charged with making false entries also was named on all counts in the new indictment.

U. S. District Attorney R. S. Wilson said Thursday night that the Grand Jury had indicted a second person, but declined to identify the person or the nature of the indictment.

Commissioner Winham said the indictments covered a period from May, 1950, to May 23, 1952.

Westbrook appeared here before Commissioner Winham today and made bond of $7,500. He could not be reached for comment.

The Ft. Smith jury has finished its investigation of the shortage, which was discovered last August.

Mrs. Mary Busby Is Buried Friday at McCaskill

Mrs. Mary Busby, 83 years of age, died Wednesday night, after an extended illness. She was a life long resident of Hempstead County, having lived at McCaskill for the past 43 years, and has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Prescott of McCaskill for several years.

She was a member of the Holly Grove Methodist Church. She is survived by two grand children, Leon and Carolyn Prescott of McCaskill, three sisters, Mrs. Carrie Dunham, Texarkana, Mrs. Jane Hulse, Washington, and Mrs. Willie Kaufman, Salina, Kansas, three brothers, John and W. A. Shields of Hope and Roy Shields of Los Angeles, Calif., two step daughters, Mrs. Bert Norwood, Ozon, and Mrs. Laura Wright, Los Angeles, Calif.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon in McCaskill Methodist Church at 2:30 p.m.

Violence Greets May Day as Soviets Call for Acts to Back Talk

West Is Arming Without Letup, Bulganin Claims

MOSCOW (UP) — The Soviet defense minister, Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin, said in a May Day speech in Red Square today there are no signs that the West is letting up in the arms race or abandoning "war bases" near Soviet territory. He called on Western statesmen to back up their peaceful words with deeds.

The Soviet government, he said, believes that "given good will and an intelligent approach all international problems could be solved peacefully." But, he added, inasmuch as there are no signs of a reduction in arms production by Western governments nor abandonment of military bases of the territory of European and Asian countries bounding the Soviet Union "our government calls for the strengthening of our armed forces."

French Indo China's Fate Believed Near

By LARRY ALLEN

HANOI, Indochina, (UP) — The battle deciding the fate of the ancient mountain kingdom of Laos besieged by the Vietnamese legions of Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh — may be underway within 48 hours.

By then the bar-footed invaders from neighboring Viet Nam, who have engulfed over a third of the interior Indochinese state in less than three weeks, are expected to attack King Savang Vong's royal seat of Luangprabang.

If the Vietnamese win there, it may be only a short time until they reach the borders of Burma and Thailand, each of which has a sizable Communist element. The Vietnamese now are only 80 miles from Thailand and 100 miles from Burma.

Four to five Vietnamese divisions have poured into Laos since the first Red attack there April 12.

Today the invaders were reported within 12 miles of Luangprabang on the north and east. The French have promised a last-ditch defense of the sun-baked, palm-lined little town of 6,000 Laotians. A desperate paced airlift has poured French Union troops and American-supplied war materials into the town.

The belief was widespread that the Vietnamese assault from the north and east may come early Sunday morning. The sabbath is a favorite day for Vietnamese attacks.

The French and Laotians are confident they can defeat the invaders. To date, however, the French-Laotian posts in the Vietnamese path have fallen, one by one.

Broomhead, 26, of Salt Lake City, said the Communists sometimes broke down prisoners and forced them to "confess" things they had not done. He said other prisoners believed these men also were sent to the mysterious camp.

The flier said one of the prisoners never seen by other POWs was a Marine lieutenant colonel with a background of experience with the Atomic Energy Commission. That officer was shot down over North Korea some months ago.

LITTLE ROCK, (UP) — Arkansas weather will be a few degrees warmer than normal Saturday and Sunday, with a slight temperature drop Monday, the U.S. Weather Bureau said today.

In its extended forecast, the Bureau said the state could expect moderate rains with scattered thundershowers the middle of next week.

Normal minimum for the period May 1-5 is from 51 to 55 degrees with the normal maximum ranging from 73 to 82.

A burglar alarm has been placed on the Stone of Stone, which is a part of the British coronation chain.

Because of several conflicts the date of the fourth annual music festival sponsored by the Hope Music Club has been changed to May 12 at 7:30 in the high school stadium.

In addition to the musical groups from all the Hope schools, Mrs. Ed O'Grady and Homer Jones will be heard in solos and a large chorus will sing the great "Hallelujah Chorus" as a finale.

Secondary Road Appropriations Split in Half

By LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (UP) — The Arkansas Highway Department today cut in half the Highway Commission's earlier estimate of 10 million dollars for planned work on primary and secondary roads.

The Commission last week estimated planned highway improvement projects at nearly 10 million. However, more exact figures made available today cut the total — for both primary and secondary — down to $5,000,000.

The Commission said it plans to spend an estimated $390,000 this year for relocation of two dangerous traffic miles of Highway 70 through De Walle Bluff.

The De Walle Bluff relocation was the smallest of four primary projects programmed by the Commission last week. But it is the only one that will be in final shape if it is carried out under present plans.

The Commission programmed three other primary projects, but all as "stage" construction. In

Some Yanks Held Deep in North Korea

TOKYO — A secret Communist prison camp, hidden deep in North Korea, may hold some American fighting men known to be Red prisoners but who never have been seen by other U. S. captives, a young Navy flier said today.

He reported one was a Marine officer and atomic energy expert. "There was one camp we have very little information on," Lt. (JG) Marvin S. Broomhead said in an interview at Tokyo Army Hospital. He was repatriated in last week's exchange of disabled war prisoners.

"No one knows exactly where it is. It was rumored that this camp was used for 'special purposes.' "There were people who were captured whom no one ever saw, these people were being sent some where. We deduced they were being sent to this other camp."

Broomhead, 26, of Salt Lake City, said the Communists sometimes broke down prisoners and forced them to "confess" things they had not done. He said other prisoners believed these men also were sent to the mysterious camp.

Clashes Spread in Japan, France and Germany

By United Press

Violent clashes between Communist demonstrators and police and security forces in Germany, France and Japan marked May Day celebrations throughout the world today as Soviet Defense Minister Nikolai Bulganin called for a strengthening of Soviet armed forces.

Bulganin, speaking before cheering May Day crowds in Moscow's Red Square said Russia must build its armed strength because "the West has done nothing to ease world tension. He called on Western powers for deeds, not words in a drive toward peace."

However, peace was not the theme in Northern France. Munich, Germany and Tokyo. In Reds battled police and troops in demonstrations celebrating the traditional Communist holiday.

The day's biggest clash occurred in downtown Tokyo when 10,000 cheering Communist youths, armed with staves and clubs, battled riot police who attempted to disperse them after a parade.

Twenty police riot cars and reinforcements to the scene of the clash — about a half-mile from the Imperial Palace, where Reds last May Day staged bloody anti-American riots.

Fifty persons and 30 demonstrators and 20 security guards were injured in the night rioting. In mining towns of the Red and Republican guards clashed in street battles. Special anti-riot squads were on duty in many cities of the French mining district and in Paris to guard against further violence.

In Munich, police used their carbine bullets and "water cannon" to smash a demonstration by several Reds. No casualties were reported, but several demonstrators were arrested.

Smuggled List Gives Joy to Many

By The Associated Press

A smuggled prisoner-of-war list today brought at least eight American families the first definite word that their sons are reported still alive in North Korea.

Two Canadian soldiers freed by the Communists during last week's prisoner exchange disclosed the list in Tokyo. It contained the names of 40 American, French and Canadian veterans.

Lance Cpl. Paul Dugal of Quebec City and Pvt. Arthur Baker of Montreal said the 40 were in good health in North Korean prison camps or hospitals.

One name was that of Pvt. William McCartney, 22-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John McCartney of Pittsburgh, Pa. His parents said he had been officially listed as killed in action last year.

When informed by the Associated Press that her son was reported alive, Mrs. McCartney cried: "Oh, I just can hardly believe it. But praise the Lord, it must be true. I have been praying and praying that the report Billy was killed was wrong. Now it looks like the report was in error."

The name of Charlie Woolman was read from the list to his mother, Mrs. Virgil Woolman, of Beaumont, Tex.

"Oh thank you, thank you," she said. "He's the only one I have left. His father died in January this year. I've been ill ever since they notified me he was missing in action."

Baker had the names and addresses written in a diary which had the other names in a similar dress book made of pages torn from a book.

Glad to Find Soldier Son Still Alive

HEBER SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Brannon Davis said this morning he was "glad to find out" that his soldier son still was alive in a North Korean prison camp.

Davis said he knew that his son — 25-year-old Cpl. Truman Davis — was a prisoner of the Communists but added:

"It's good to hear from him this quick — we don't get letters very often."

Corporal Davis was named on a list of POWs still held by the Reds. The list was brought back to the United States by a repatriated prisoner.

Cpl. Everett W. Rittenour, 21, of Woodstock, Va., said in Tokyo that he had left 75 of his friends in Red Prison Camp No. 5 on the Yalu River in North Korea.

Rittenour said each of them had written his name and address on the list so he could notify relatives they were still alive.

Brannon Davis said he had received a letter from his son this month, the first one since last July.

"Last summer, we heard from Truman about every four to six weeks," said Davis. "Then the letters stopped coming until this month."

Davis said his son was captured Dec. 1, 1950, while fighting with the Army's Second Division.

"We're planning the biggest celebration on record when that boy gets home," he said.

Mundt said the Senate subcommittee was informed at a secret meeting this week that Dulles has "replaced over 50 persons in key positions for policy reasons alone."

A few involved shifts from policy to nonpolicy posts, he said, but resignations accounted for the rest.

In addition, Mundt said, the administration has received or obtained the resignations of 49 others "for reasons of suitability, security or homosexuality" since the GOP took over Jan. 20. Another 112 applicants have been denied jobs since then on the same grounds, he added.

Mundt, an outspoken critic of former Secretary of State Dean Acheson, complained recently of a slow turnover of top State Department jobs to men more "in sympathy with the new administration."

But in an interview today, he said:

"I am very much pleased from the testimony of Under Secretary of State Donald Loring at the highly accelerated rate of turnover now, which I am told will be continued, if not intensified."

The appropriations subcommittee which called Dulles is considering the department's request for 130 million dollars in appropriations for the year starting July 1. Later it will take up a bill to provide money for foreign aid authorization.

The administration is reported drafting a foreign aid bill calling for about $5,800,000,000 in new money, compared with former President Truman's request for at least $7,600,000,000. Mutual Security Director Harold E. Stassen declined comment on reports he was arguing against recommendations under $6,100,000,000.

Acheson Team to Get Boot in State Dept.

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.) disclosed today what he called a "highly accelerated" State Department effort to eliminate members of the old Acheson team from top policy positions.

The disclosure took at least some of the edge off the Senate questioning at a closed session of a Senate appropriations subcommittee today.

Reporting to the nation over radio and television networks last night, Dulles compared U. S. economic aid to Europe to the clutch of a sick man uses until he gets well enough to throw it away.

"We believe that this is becoming increasingly possible," he commented in saying America's allies in Europe are getting stronger enough to require no more outright grants. Nevertheless, he said, the U. S. will continue to spend "substantial sums" with them.

Dulles said he told this to British, French and other European officials at the meeting in Paris last week of the North Atlantic Treaty Council. He said these allies "welcomed" the relationship which would be dignified and self-respecting for all concerned.

The secretary declared the Council provided for a steady buildup of Western defense, which he described as "no longer a 'push-over'" and said the Eisenhower administration's plan to substitute trade for aid will "get more security for less money."

Mundt said the Senate subcommittee was informed at a secret meeting this week that Dulles has "replaced over 50 persons in key positions for policy reasons alone."

The appropriations subcommittee which called Dulles is considering the department's request for 130 million dollars in appropriations for the year starting July 1. Later it will take up a bill to provide money for foreign aid authorization.

DOROTHY DIX
Senseless Jealousy

Dear Miss Dix: I'm sixteen and have been married six months. I realize I was very young to marry, but my husband was out of school and said he wouldn't marry me if I didn't get married when he wanted to. I've always been jealous and my husband, Paul, knew it before we were married. I try not to show my jealousy, but just can't help it. Paul has a brother, Leroy, who is married and I am too. Maybe it's just my imagination but I feel that he and Paul are flirting every time they see each other. I told Leo how I felt and he told his mother. Now she's always jumping on me about my foolish jealousy.

Answer: Naturally, I agree that you were too young to marry, and every line of your letter proves the point. Your childish haste to grab a man on his own terms, your senseless jealousy, the separations and reconciliations outlined in your letter — which was too long to print in full — all indicate an irresponsible approach to marriage. You're a child and instead of trying to conquer your shortcomings you almost revel in revealing them. It's time you decided whether to make a success of your marriage, or to continue it as a tight-rope walk.

If you love your husband, as you say you do, grow up and act like a wife and a woman. Stop giving in to your senseless jealousy and stop bragging about it to the rest of the family. It's nothing of which to be proud. Learn to tackle your own problems without involving in-laws who have enough of their own. Consultation with a marriage counselor would be a good idea, though I'm not so sure that a kindergarten teacher wouldn't be more on your emotional level.

Dear Miss Dix: Almost a year ago my 31-year-old daughter met a widower of 40, whose wife died four years ago. Apparently it was love at first sight and they have been deeply attached to each other for several months. However, the gentleman, whose social and business standing are impeccable, has not proposed, supposedly because he still cherishes the memory of his late wife. Do you think my daughter is wasting her time waiting for him to propose?

Answer: Many men have a perverse tendency to monopolize the time and affection of one woman, never getting around to the awaited question, "Will you marry me?" Such an arrangement is, of course, convenient for the male, but frustrating to the female, who is anxious to get about the business of establishing a home and raising a family. Perhaps the man in this case just needs a gentle nudge, or perhaps he is quite satisfied to have the pleasure of a lady's company without being tied down to domestic life. While it seems likely that his love for your daughter will produce a proposal ere long, it certainly wouldn't be amiss for her, or you, to ask his intentions. Keeping a woman in suspense, as he is, is very very unfair to her.

Dear Miss Dix: Is an intelligent person ever a giggler? I know someone who claims to be intelligent but giggles all the time. I love to hear anyone with a good hearty laugh, but a giggler gets on my nerves.

Answer: The nature of one's laugh has nothing to do with intelligence; some people laugh heartily, others manifest enjoyment in a more moderate fashion. Giggling is more apt to be a nervous habit than anything else. Isn't there a better means for you to judge intelligence?

wouldn't rule out any chance of a tax reduction. I don't think there will be any big fight with the administration but we may cut appropriations even below the administration requests."

And House Speaker Joseph Martin (R-Mass.) said:

"I'm still hopeful we can make the appropriation cuts that will justify a tax reduction."

Eisenhower declined to speculate on possible additional tax reductions and Taft, the Senate Republican leader, significantly withheld any predictions on this score.

But the Ohio Senator said in an interview he doubts that any firm estimates will be given Congress in the present session on federal spending, which he said "will determine tax policy and whether there is a deficit."

Many Republicans promised a balanced budget and reduced levies

in last year's political campaign, but Eisenhower has said he made no pledge to cut taxes.

Eisenhower announced he will ask Congress to vote $15 billion dollars less than the $72,900,000,000 in new appropriations former President Truman had recommended for the coming year.

But Eisenhower declined to say how much of that would be represented in actual savings at the Treasury's pay-out window, although Rep. Short (R-Mo.) previously had estimated the amount at $4,440,000,000.

Noting that Truman had predicted the nation will go into the red $9,900,000,000 in the new fiscal year, Eisenhower said it just wouldn't be possible to wipe this out because of commitments, already made—largely for military equipment.

Although the President gave no figures on the over-all appropriations cut, members of Congress said about five billion less would be asked in new money for the military, $1,800,000,000 less for foreign aid, $1,200,000,000 less for domestic affairs and 200 or 300 million less for atomic developments.

Despite the President's statement, Taft said figures supplied to the lawmakers at an earlier White House conference "certainly gives us hope there might be a balanced budget."

He said the spending figures—opposed to appropriations—were "very definite" because administration officials were "finding something new every day and cutting spending all the time." He said he expects this to be a continuous process.

Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the Senate Appropriations Committee said the $15 billion estimate was "just preliminary" in the way of appropriations reductions.

"There is a chance of balancing the budget and an effort will be made to balance it," he said.

Chairman Taft (R-NY) of the House Appropriations Committee also said the House might make deeper cuts in money bills than Eisenhower planned.

Taft said he still thought the reduction in appropriations might be 13 billion dollars under Truman's request.

Eisenhower insisted that reductions in requests for military funds would be made without hampering a long-range program "enabling for a steady and adequate flow of men and materials to present a position of genuine strength to any would-be

Harrison
Hurls Meridan
Out of Cellar

By CARL BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Harrison is on his way, and the Meridan Millers are beginning to look a little more like the Cotton States League's defending champions.

The young hurler, who won 24 games and lost five in leading the Meridians to the pennant last year, was beaten in the 1953 season-opener and Meridan dropped to the cellar and stayed there with three successive setbacks.

Last night Harrison whipped Monroe, 3-2, with a shut job; lifted the Millers two notches to sixth place and knocked the Sports out of a second-place tie with Jackson.

It was Harrison's second straight triumph. He blanked Monroe on two hits last Saturday.

Pine Bluff's Judges clung to first place with a 4-2 conquest of Greenville. The Jackson Senators remained close behind by turning back Natchez, 10-9, and El Dorado swept a doubleheader from Hot Springs, 5-3 and 4-4.

Pine Bluff scored twice without a hit in the ninth inning to break a 2-2 tie at Greenville. Five consecutive walks — four off Vince Zerk and one off Walt Jackson — did the trick. Al Schwegnan and Glen Van Proyen, who won in a relief role, shared the Pine Bluff pitching, holding the Bucks to six hits.

A bases-loaded single in the ninth inning by Louie Schaufele gave Jackson a sweep of a raincut 2-game series with Natchez.

Natchez knotted the score, 9-9, with four runs in the top of the ninth. Harold Remm, who relieved John with the bases loaded, pitched to one batter to put out the fire and get credit for the victory.

After a base on balls, a wild pitch and an infield out had put Jackson's Bobby Adams on third in the bottom of the ninth, the

Porker Baseballers Win a Twin Bill

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — Taking full advantage of a short 250-foot left field fence and a strong wind in that direction, the Arkansas Razorbacks slugged out 3-2 and 3-2 victories over Northeast Oklahoma Teachers in a doubleheader here yesterday.

Lewis Carpenter hit a home run in each game and a double, driving in six runs and stealing home once.

Bob Warren's grand-slam homer decided the first game, in which Lyle Wilkerson also hit for the circuit.

Lamar McLean smashed a 3-run homer, a 3-run blow by Ray Engel in the second tilt.

Lefty Bob St. Pierre checked the visitors on five hits in winning the 9th inning effort. Walter Kearns yielded 10 safeties in winning the 8th inning afterpiece.

Indians intentionally walked Anse Moore and Manager Duke Doolittle to get to Schaufele with a schedule-breaking force-out possible. The former University of Arkansas football and baseball star, just out of service, hit a blooper behind first. Natchez first baseman Don Allen couldn't hold it and it went for a hit, scoring Adams.

Hot Springs' centerfielder Hal Martin hit six for eight, including his third home run in two nights and a double in the twin bill at El Dorado, but it wasn't enough.

Veteran outfielder Pei Austin slammed El Dorado's first homer of the season in the first game, and the "Oilers" Curtis Ray got one in the nightcap.

El Dorado's Chuck Sieber and Hot Springs' Camper each allowed only five hits in the second with men on base best Camper.

The twin victories gave the Oilers a sweep of the 3-game series and boosted them into fourth place in the standings.

Ross to Hurl When 'Riders Play Reddies

Bobby Ross

MAGNOLIA — Coach Sam Bailey's Southern State College baseballers will meet the Henderson Reddies in a non-conference tilt at Hope's Legion Field Wednesday May 6.

The game will be sponsored by the Hope Legionnaires to open their baseball season. Game time is 8 p.m.

Southern State was drubbed 6-0 by Henderson April 17 in Arkansas. The Reddies will make their return appearance on Southern State campus Tuesday, May 5.

Bobby Ross, Hope sophomore pre-law student at Southern State, will start on the mound for the Muldoers.

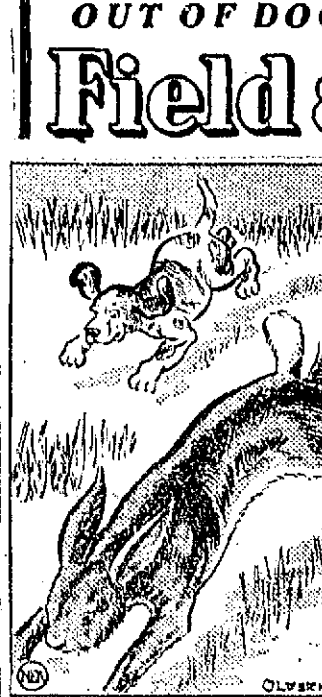

Will Martin, Hope engineering freshman, will be behind the plate. Another Hope starter will be Billy Gunter, serving as Muldoers' third baseman.

On their first nine games this season, the 'Riders have won five, lost four. In Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference competition, they have a 2-2 record.

When I was a kid, I felt that the luckiest kid in town was a boy named Eddie. He owned a beagle hound. It wasn't a dachshund, and I suspect there were several bars sinister on its breeding, but it was a lively little pooch, and it would run rabbits all day if there were any rabbits to run. And there were in those days.

One of the highlights of that adolescent period was to get off with Eddie and his dog, down near White Island Pond back of Plymouth, Mass. Not because we ever bagged a large mess of rabbits there, or because we liked hassenpfeffer at that stage of life, but just to watch — and listen to — that little hound as he shagged cottontails from one brush pile to the next.

There are any number of grown men still boyish enough to get a bang out of such goings on. I'm talking about ordinary Joes with house-fed hounds — not the semi-professionals who own thoroughbreds that know more about rabbits than rabbits do.

The shotshell manufacturers tell us that some 29.9 per cent of their hulls are sold to rabbit hunters — and a goodly percentage of them in terms of millions of pounds of tender eating meat.

Down on the Eastern Shore of Maryland some years back we gunned for ducks until the season closed on December 31st, and then celebrated New Year's day with a rabbit hunt. I don't recall the name of the beagle working for us, but it should have been indefatigable. He investigated every brush pile in the county until our coats were bagged full. He finally took off after a fox and stayed out for two days.

Whether you kick out the bunnies yourself or have a dog to start them with, missing rabbits is a sin for the confirmed bird shooter. The shotgunner who operates most of the time on a rabbit hunt is accustomed to a rabbit

Oklahoma Aggies Swamp Arkansas

STILLWATER, Okla. — Oklahoma A&M routed the University of Arkansas, 92½ to 42½, in a dual track and field meet here yesterday.

The Aggies swept 12 of the 16 first places.

Dean Pryor, the versatile decathlon performer, provided about the only bright note for the Razorbacks, winning the javelin throw, placing second in the discus and tying for fourth in the pole vault.

After being upset into a third place finish in the mile, Arkansas Rick Heber captured the half-mile.

Travelers to Travel to Chattanooga

By The Associated Press

Six Southern Association baseball teams get a change of scenery and now opposition tonight.

Mobile ran up against the Birmingham Barons last night for the first time this season, and lost to the league leaders, 4-2.

Other teams had the night off.

Tonight's agenda reads like this: Birmingham at Mobile; Little Rock at Chattanooga; Atlanta at New Orleans; and Memphis at Nashville.

Birmingham's Gus Triandos, who is leading the league in batting, runs batted in, and home runs, wasn't around last night but the Barons didn't miss him. They took advantage of three Mobile errors and came from behind to win.

Birmingham got a run in the third and Mobile went ahead 2-1 in the bottom of that inning. Then the Barons tied it up in the eighth and got two runs in the ninth to clinch it.

Each team collected eight hits. Third baseman Ash Hecker of Mobile was the goat. He committed two errors, each of which gave Birmingham a run.

Triandos, who leads the league with a .551 batting average, left the club yesterday for a trip to Ft. Sam Houston, Tex., to be separated from the Army. He has on terminal leave.

Christianity MUST Win! . . . CHRISTIANITY WILL WIN!

HE was a carpenter!

Hitting the nail on the head means keeping your eye on the nail. A successful carpenter keeps a firm grip on his hammer and his eye on the nail. The Master Carpenter said, "no man can serve two masters." The Carpenter of Nazareth "hit the nail on the head" when He said, "There is a way that seemeth right to a man, but the end thereof is the way of death." A tree is known by the fruit it bears. He drove down another spike when He said, "I am the way . . . follow me." Are you helping build good lives? Do you follow Him to church? He is the way. "He is the light of the world."

Ex-Prisoner Settles Down for Vacation

HILLEMANN, AP — The first-day excitement is over, the tears of happiness have flowed, and Capt. Willie J. Patrick settled down today for 30 days of forgetting 23 months in a Communist prison of war camp.
The 22-year-old Hillemann corporal got the first glimpse of his parents since 1945 on a country road about four miles south of here yesterday when the family caught up with a state police car which was taking Patrick home.
He and his father embraced in the middle of the road for a second. Patrick broke the emotion-packed moment with "Hi, Dad."
His father said "How have you been son?"
Then Patrick's mother and sister crowded around and tears flowed.
Corporal Willie had returned home after being released by the Communists at Panmunjom in the second batch of prisoners last week.
At the Patrick home a little while later, after the ex-POW had washed and eaten his first home cooked meal of ham and eggs in years, Willie sat and talked.
He told his parents that if the Communists gave proper medical care to the prisoners a lot more lives would be saved.

Sabre Jets Blast Big Radio Station

SEOUL, AP — Fifth swift F80 Sabre jets flying as divebombers today blasted a big radio station and a military headquarters building near the North Korean capital, Pyongyang.
The 5th Air Force reported the attack shortly after announcing the 6th Fighter-Bomber Wing is flying F80's, giving the U. N. Command four complete Sabre wings in Korea.
Twenty-five of the planes in today's attack were from the 8th. The number of swept-wing Sabres in combat has been doubled in the last few months.
Other Allied fighterbombers have cratered at least seven Communist airfields in North Korea in the last week to keep them out of operation, an Air Force officer said.
Communist armies along the 155-mile battle front observed May Day — the traditional Red holiday — quietly. There were only a few minor skirmishes.

The broods of cicadas which appear each year, do so in 17-year cycles, the different broods numbered from 1 to 17 with the brood of 1936 1953 1870 being one of the largest.
